Embark on Transformative Journeys with Cheesemans'!

Now Venturing into New Horizons!

Cheesemans' Ecology Safaris, founded by Doug and Gail Cheeseman, has been reinvigorated under the dynamic leadership of Scott Davis and Krista Hanni, with Ted Cheeseman contributing as an independent advisor. Our legacy, built on the Cheesemans' deep-rooted passion for exploring and conserving the world's wildlife and environments, continues to thrive and evolve.

Nearly four decades of experience have shaped our ethos: offering in-depth wildlife explorations centered around conservation, education, and unforgettable experiences. We're embarking on a new era characterized by maintaining the high standards set by the Cheesemans as we introduce innovative new trips and continue to offer the incredible African safaris beloved by Doug and Gail.

Why Choose Cheesemans'?

At Cheesemans' Ecology Safaris, we are committed to designing and leading tours to the planet's most ecologically rich destinations. Our focus remains on providing exceptional wildlife watching and photography opportunities. Our aim is unchanged – to craft life-changing safari experiences that resonate long after the journey ends.

Your Next Adventure Awaits!

Your next adventure awaits! Let this travel guide inspire you to discover your next unforgettable wildlife journey. Bookmark cheesemans.com where you can explore these and more exciting offerings (as new trips are added throughout the year). We invite you to join us!

We Help Where We Visit!

Our company's core values have always intertwined conservation with responsible tourism. We acknowledge our duty to make travel decisions to support local conservation efforts while also reducing climate impacts through carbon offsets. Traveling with us is not just a journey; it's an opportunity to nurture your passion for preserving our beautiful world while also invigorating local conservation economies in each destination.

Responsible Tourism

Our trip leaders lead by example, share tips, and offer various ways to travel lightly and eco-consciously. Each local operator is selected by Cheesemans' with conservation unique to the destination in mind.

Destination-Specific Conservation

Our destinations model impactful grassroots practices for conservation. We provide actions you can take before, during, and after your trip to support their efforts towards positive change.

Carbon Offsets

When you book with us, we offset your carbon emissions throughout the duration of your trip, and in return, you pledge to offset your carbon emissions to and from your trip. Together we can make a difference!
